WHAT A GROUP

Chief Speaks

My Fellow Arrowmen,

We have started off to a good year. With the achievement of another year of Quality Lodge under our belt, there is a lot that needs to be done to do so again, for the Sixth time; however, we have a great group of chiefs and advisers and I am absolutely confident that we will have no problem achieving it again. Besides our Quality Lodge endeavors, the Lodge Banquet went off well, kudos to Adam. With arrowmen such as Brad Lachota, the past National Chief, and Joe Garcia, the current Western Region Chief, we had a full room at the beautiful Norconian Club. Other events that have set the Lodge on a good start were the pow-wow in Palm Springs and the multiple LEC's. I know that all of my chiefs are doing their very best as we wrap this election season. Things to look forward to throughout the year: AreaCorps2, SummitCorps, and Indian Summer. The Lodge is sending contingents to all of these events. If anyone has any questions, please let myself or Mr. Hedrick know. I hope that we are all having the best of time in our life of cheerful service.

Yours In Service,
Ian McLeod
Lodge Chief, 2011

Adviser's Minute

My Fellow Arrowmen,

As we start this New Year I would like to inform you of the exciting opportunities that are being offered. First we have AreaCorps 2 that will be held April 8-9 at Joshua Tree National Park. A weekend of service to our local area by all four Lodges.

Next is SummitCorps 2011 at Betchel Family Scout Reservation, West Virginia July 3-9. This will provide exciting opportunities for service, adventure, and recreation. SummitCorps 2011 will be held at the New River Gorge National River in West Virginia.

And Indian Summer 2011 that will be held Aug. 1-6, 2011 at the Ridgecrest Conference Center, Asheville, North Carolina. What better way than to spend 5 days in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains improving yourself as an Arrowman and team member in the areas of singing, dancing, and ceremonies. This is not even counting the Ordeals, Fall Fellowship, Conclave and other Great Fellowship Opportunities that are being offered.

This year we are led by an OUTSTANDING team, headed by our Lodge Chief, Ian McLeod. These young men are advised by an incomparable team of Associate Lodge Advisers. We are looking forward to another year of Cheerful Service to our Council.

A fundamental part of scouting is the outing. This may range from day hikes to overnight camping to summer camp. To assist you in your planning and camping needs, Cahuilla Lodge has created a "Where to go Camping Guide". We hope this information will introduce your unit to some new places to camp as well as remind you of some of the old familiar ones.

Yours in Scouting,
Kenneth C. Hedrick
Cahuilla Lodge Adviser
